

10th Keynes Fund Research Day

Thursday 28th September 2023, 12PM ~ 5PM BST-UK

Venue: Meade Room, Faculty of Economics, University of Cambridge

Preliminary Programme

- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-13:05 Introduction Toke Aidt, Keynes Fund Director, Faculty of Economics, Cambridge
- 13:05-13:30 Christopher Rauh (University of Cambridge)
‘Dynamic Early Warning and Action Model of Conflict’
Discussion opener: Toke Aidt
- 13:30-13:55 Julia Shvets (University of Cambridge)
‘Pro-social behaviour in groups: Evidence from the field’
Discussion opener: Peter Sloman
- 13:55-14:20 Eric French (University of Cambridge)
‘Genetics and Lifetime Earnings: Understanding the Mechanisms’ (tentative title)
Discussion opener: Julia Shvets
- 14:20-14:45 Ramit Debnath (Computer Science and Cambridge Zero, University of Cambridge)
‘Leveraging computational social science for distributive environmental justice’
Discussion opener: Jerome Simons
- 14:45-15:15 Coffee & Cake break
- 15:15-15:40 Charles Brendon (University of Cambridge)
‘Optimal nonlinear savings taxation’
Discussion opener: Eric French

15:40-16:05 Peter Sloman (University of Cambridge)

'Where's the Money Coming From? Manifestos, Policy Costings, and Electoral Choices in Western Democracies'

Discussion opener: Toke Aidt

16:05-16:30 Jerome Simons (University of Cambridge)

'Cointegration without Unit Roots'

Discussion opener: Ramit Debnath

16:30-16:55 Sanjeev Goyal (University of Cambridge) (joining remotely)

'An experimental test of the relation between network centrality and human behaviour'

Discussion opener: Sriya Iyer